Dear Chief Commissioner

Sub: Appointment of Counsels by Central Board of Excise & Customs for constituting a panel to defend the cases relating to indirect taxation before various High Courts - Reg.

Central Board of Excise & Customs has been recently assigned the powers by Ministry of Law & Justice to appoint Standing Counsels for constitution of panel to defend the cases relating to indirect taxation before the various High Courts. This has been a long pending demand of the Central Board of Excise & Customs with the Law Ministry and as a result of continuous efforts and persistence, the Law Ministry has acceded to our request.

2. Central Board of Excise & Customs in consultation with the Ministry of Law & Justice has prepared the guidelines governing the manner of appointment of Counsels and the various terms and conditions of their appointment. The guidelines are enclosed as Annexure 'I' & 'II'.

3. Looking to the fact there are more than one Chief Commissioner within the jurisdiction of the various High Courts, Committees of Chief Commissioners have been formed for the purpose of examining the suitability of the Counsels applying for appointment for a particular High Court and sending self contained recommendations to the Board for constitution of panel. The Committee of Chief Commissioners constituted for this purpose is enclosed as Annexure 'A'. The Committee of Chief Commissioners duly headed by the senior most Chief Commissioner may call for the names from the Counsels by way of advertisement in the leading newspapers as per the procedure and or through Bar Association of the respective High Court.

4. The number of Counsels who would be handling the revenue cases before each High Court has been tentatively fixed and is enclosed as Annexure 'B'. The number of Junior Standing Counsel and Senior Counsels has also been worked out. However the Chief Commissioners are at liberty to change the composition depending upon the nominations received and the categories to which they fall and give adequate justification thereto.

5. The work relating to formation of the panel of Counsels should be completed by 15.1.2008. The Chief Commissioner, heading the Committee should send a self contained proposal addressed to the undersigned in terms of the procedure contained in the guidelines governing the manner of appointment of Counsels and their terms and conditions.

With best wishes.

Yours sincerely
